LONG-TERM DISABILITY (LTD)
LTD is a benefit provided by the university to eligible faculty and staff. It is designed to provide income replacement when an extended injury or illness has occurred and prevents you from working. The program has a 90 calendar day elimination period (as defined and illustrated on page 6) before benefits begin. The university pays the premium costs; no enrollment is necessary.

SHORT-TERM DISABILITY (STD)
STD is a benefit option available to eligible faculty and staff. It is designed to provide income replacement before LTD benefits begin. This program has a 30 calendar day elimination period (as defined and illustrated on page 6) before benefits begin. Enrollment is voluntary and the employee pays all premiums on an after-tax basis.

Enrollment
You may enroll in STD coverage by visiting Employee Self Service and selecting eBenefits. Medical evidence of insurability (EOI) is not required if you enroll within 30 calendar days of:

- Employment in an eligible appointment. Contact your human resource professional or use the Benefits Eligibility tool to see if you are eligible for STD.
- Certain life events, including divorce, death of a spouse and birth/adoption/legal guardianship/legal custody.

If you do not enroll in STD under the above circumstances, you may also enroll in STD coverage:

- During special open enrollment periods that are designated by Unum. These special open enrollment periods do not occur on an annual basis. Eligible employees will receive notice in advance of any such special open enrollment periods. Medical EOI is not required to enroll in STD during the special open enrollment periods.
- At any time when you submit an Evidence of Insurability form to Unum and an enrollment application to the University. The EOI form is available for completion online at services.unum.com/EFORMS/EOI/Default.aspx. STD coverage is approved by Unum.

If you have questions or need assistance with the enrollment process, contact Integrated Absence Management and Vocational Services.

- If you elect STD coverage without EOI (during an open enrollment period or within 30 calendar days after you become eligible), your coverage will begin on the first day of the pay period following the date of your election.
- If you elect STD coverage at any other time and EOI is required, your coverage will begin on the first day of the pay period after Unum approves your application.

• Integrated Absence Management and Vocational Services will complete the “Employer” portion of the coverage conversion form and submit the form to Unum for processing.
• Contact Unum at 800-421-0344 with additional questions or to check the status of your application.
STD

If you elected STD coverage and made all required premium payments, you may be eligible for STD benefits after you have been disabled (as defined below) for 30 calendar days (i.e., there is a 30 calendar day “elimination period”). STD benefits can continue for up to 60 calendar days (after meeting the 30-day elimination period), after which you may be eligible for LTD benefits. You may use any available vacation while receiving STD benefits. However, certain deductible sources of income, including sick leave or paid parental leave but excluding vacation pay, will offset your disability payment and your STD benefit will be reduced accordingly. (See page 12 for additional income that offsets disability payments.) For additional information about using your paid leave and STD, contact Integrated Absence Management and Vocational Services.

LTD

You may be eligible for LTD benefits after you have been disabled for 90 calendar days. You may use vacation leave while receiving LTD benefits. However, certain deductible sources of income, including sick leave or paid parental leave, will offset your disability payment and your LTD benefit will be reduced accordingly. (See page 12 for additional income that offsets disability payments.) For additional information about using your paid leave and STD, contact Integrated Absence Management and Vocational Services.

DEFINITION OF DISABILITY

In general, you are considered “disabled” for purposes of the LTD and STD policies if:

- You are limited from performing the material and substantial duties of your regular occupation due to your sickness or injury and you have a 20% or more loss in earnings due to the same sickness or injury.
- After receiving LTD benefits for 24 months, you are still considered disabled if you are unable to perform the duties of any gainful occupation for which you are reasonably qualified by training, education or experience.

Note: With respect to maternity, disability benefits will only cover the portion of the maternity leave that is medically documented, which could be six weeks for a normal delivery and eight weeks for a cesarean delivery.

PHYSICIAN CARE REQUIRED

No disability benefits will be paid for any day on which you are not under the care of a physician.

ELIMINATION PERIOD

The elimination period is the continuous period of time that you are disabled (i.e., limited from performing the substantial duties of your job due to sickness or injury and have a 20% or more loss in earnings due to the same sickness or injury) prior to the start of your disability benefits.

Example 1:

Under the STD policy, the elimination period is 30 calendar days from the date you become disabled.

Example 2:

Under the LTD policy, the elimination period is 90 calendar days from the date you become disabled.

INTERRUPTION OF DISABILITY DURING THE STD ELIMINATION PERIOD

The days you work at full capacity will not count toward the STD elimination period.

Example 1:

If your disability ends and then resumes within 15 calendar days during the STD 30 calendar day elimination period, all days of disability will count toward the elimination period.

<table>

WHEN YOU QUALIFY FOR DISABILITY BENEFITS

Example 2:
If your disability ends and then resumes – after more than 15 calendar days – during the STD 30 calendar day elimination period, you must complete the full 30 calendar day elimination period from the day your disability resumed before STD benefits can begin.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

INTERRUPTION OF DISABILITY DURING THE LTD ELIMINATION PERIOD
The days you worked at full capacity will not count toward the LTD elimination period. Employees covered under the LTD plan only (i.e., did not select STD coverage):

Example 1:
If your disability ends and then resumes within 30 calendar days during the LTD 90 calendar day elimination period, all days of disability will count toward the elimination period.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Disability begins (off work)</th>
<th>March 15, 2019</th>
<th>1st calendar day of disability</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Return to work date</td>
<td>April 19, 2019</td>
<td>n/a</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Disability resumes (off work)</td>
<td>May 3, 2019</td>
<td>n/a</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Elimination period ends</td>
<td>July 25, 2019</td>
<td>n/a</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LTD benefits payable¹</td>
<td>July 26, 2019</td>
<td>91st calendar of disability</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Note: As long as you meet the above criteria, only one elimination period must be satisfied.

Example 2:
If your disability ends and then resumes after more than 30 calendar days during the LTD 90 calendar day elimination period, you must complete the full 90-day elimination period from the day your disability resumed before LTD benefits can begin.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Disability begins (off work)</th>
<th>March 15, 2019</th>
<th>1st calendar day of disability</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Return to work date</td>
<td>April 19, 2019</td>
<td>n/a</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Disability resumes (off work)</td>
<td>July 1, 2020</td>
<td>n/a</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Elimination period ends</td>
<td>September 29, 2020</td>
<td>n/a</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LTD benefits payable¹</td>
<td>September 30, 2020</td>
<td>91st calendar of disability</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Note: In the above example, the period of disability is not considered one period, because it was interrupted by more than 180 days, so you must restart the 90 calendar day elimination period.

INTERRUPTION OF DISABILITY AFTER THE ELIMINATION PERIOD
After the LTD/STD elimination period, if your return to work is followed by a repeated disability that is (i) caused by a worsening of your condition, (ii) due to the same cause(s), and (iii) within 180 days from the end of your prior claim, then the period of disability prior to your return to work and the current disability will be considered one period of disability.

If you return to work for more than 180 days, any recurrence of a disability will be treated as a new disability and another elimination period must be met to be eligible for benefits.

Example:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Disability begins (off work)</th>
<th>March 15, 2019</th>
<th>1st calendar day of disability</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>

<tr>

WHEN YOU QUALIFY FOR DISABILITY BENEFITS

WHEN DISABILITY BENEFITS ARE NOT PAYABLE

• LTD and STD benefits are not paid for any disability when:
  - The disability is considered to be a pre-existing condition.
  - You are not under the regular care of a physician.
  - The disability is caused by loss of professional license, occupational license or certification.
  - The disability is caused or contributed to by war or act of war (declared or not).
  - You are an active participant in a riot.
  - The disability is caused by your commission or attempt to commit a crime, or commission of a crime for which you have been convicted.
  - The disability is caused or contributed to by an intentionally self-inflicted injury.
• No disability benefits will be payable under the STD or LTD policy if you are receiving or are eligible for benefits for a disability under a prior disability policy that was sponsored by Ohio State.

PRE-EXISTING CONDITION CLAUSE

• You have a pre-existing condition if: (1) you received medical treatment, consultation, care or services or took prescribed drugs or medicines in the 3 months prior to your coverage effective date; and (2) the disability begins in the first 12 months after your coverage effective date unless you have been treatment free for 3 consecutive months after your coverage effective date.
• For STD coverage, pregnancy is only excluded as a pre-existing condition if you are a new hire and apply for coverage no later than 30 calendar days following your original date of active employment.
• No disability benefits will be payable under the policy for a disability that is due to a pre-existing condition.

INTERRUPTION OF PRE-EXISTING CONDITION CLAUSE, CONT’D

Example 1:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>OSU Start Date</th>
<th>July 5, 2019</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>STD Coverage Effective Date</td>
<td>July 5, 2019</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Injury/Illness Occurred</td>
<td>December 1, 2019</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Date Injury/Illness Last Treated</td>
<td>December 1, 2019</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Disability Begins (Off Work)</td>
<td>December 9, 2019</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pre-existing Condition</td>
<td>No</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The pre-existing condition clause does not apply in the above example. This is because you were treatment free for 3 consecutive months between your coverage effective date of 7/5/19 and your disability date of 12/9/19.

Example 2:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>OSU Start Date</th>
<th>July 15, 2019</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>STD Coverage Effective Date</td>
<td>July 15, 2019</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Date Injury/Illness Last Treated</td>
<td>April 26, 2019</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Disability Begins (Off Work)</td>
<td>August 22, 2019</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pre-existing Condition</td>
<td>Yes</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The pre-existing condition clause applies in the above example because:
• You received medical care for your condition during the three consecutive-month period prior to the effective date of your coverage on July 15, 2019.
• There was not a period of three consecutive months from your effective date of coverage on July 15, 2019 in which you were treatment free, as you were disabled on August 22, 2019.
• Your coverage had been in force less than 12 months when you became disabled on August 22, 2019.

1 no additional treatment prior to 10/19
APPLYING FOR DISABILITY BENEFITS

FILING A CLAIM
You are encouraged to start the application process when your medical condition prevents you from working. This will ensure that your disability benefits begin as soon as possible.

STD
If you are currently enrolled in STD coverage, contact Unum at 866-245-3013 or visit unum.com/claims in order to initiate the STD claims process when:
- Your physician has determined you are unable to work due to an illness, injury or medical condition and has estimated you will be off work longer than 30 calendar days.
- You have been approved for a medical leave of absence, due to medical conditions such as a prescheduled surgery or maternity leave. Contact Unum at least 30 calendar days prior to the leave start date.
- Contact Integrated Absence Management and Vocational Services (IAMVS) if you are unsure if you are enrolled in STD coverage.

LTD
Contact Unum at 866-245-3013 or visit unum.com/claims in order to initiate the LTD claim process when your physician has determined you are unable to work due to an illness, injury or medical condition and has estimated you will be off work longer than 90 calendar days.

If you have an approved STD claim and are not expected to return to work within 90 calendar days Unum will review your claim for LTD eligibility. There is no need to initiate an LTD claim.

Proof of Claim
Your proof of claim, provided at your expense, must show:
- that you are under the regular care of a physician;
- the appropriate documentation of your monthly earnings;
- the date your disability began;
- the cause of your disability;
- the extent of your disability, including restrictions and limitations preventing you from performing your regular occupation; and
- the name and address of any hospital or institution where you received treatment, including all attending physicians.

Unum may request that you send proof of continuing disability indicating that you are under the regular care of a physician. This proof, provided at your expense, must be received within 45 calendar days of a request by Unum. In some cases, you will be required to give Unum authorization to obtain additional medical information and to provide non-medical information as part of your proof of claim, or proof of continuing disability. Unum will deny your claim, or stop sending you payments, if the appropriate information is not submitted.

Proof of Other Benefits
As appropriate, you should apply immediately for OPERS, STRS, Social Security and any other applicable benefits for which you might qualify. Contact Integrated Absence Management and Vocational Services for information on these benefits.

Right of Recovery
Unum has the right to recover any benefit overpayments caused by your receipt of deductible sources of income from a third party.

How to Appeal a Denied Disability Claim
If your claim for benefits is denied, you have the right to appeal the decision 180 calendar days from the receipt of the notice by sending a request to the address specified in the claim denial. For additional information about the appeals process contact Unum at 866-234-3013.

Coordination with Other University Benefits
Contact Integrated Absence Management and Vocational Services for additional information about benefit continuation while on a medical leave of absence (e.g. Family and Medical Leave, Vacation, Sick, Paid Parental, Organ Donation, Vacation Donation, and Unpaid Medical Leave).
RECEIVING DISABILITY BENEFITS

DISABILITY BENEFIT PAYMENTS
STD and LTD coverage provide for income replacement paid directly to you by Unum if you have an approved disability claim.

INCOME REPLACEMENT

• Your benefit payment will depend on the completion of an application for disability benefits and approval of the claim. You will receive weekly STD benefit payments or monthly LTD benefit payments after you complete the applicable elimination period. For LTD, your first benefit will be issued at the end of the month following your benefit start date.
• Once your claim is approved and you have met your elimination period, you will receive disability benefit payments in the amount of 60% of your eligible earnings (does not include bonuses, commissions, overtime pay, differential pay including but not limited to shift differential, expense reimbursement or any other compensation received from your employer), up to the maximum benefit payment amount.
  - The maximum benefit under the LTD policy is $5,000 per month. LTD benefits are subject to taxation.
  - The maximum benefit under the STD policy is $1,154 per week. STD benefits are not subject to taxation.
• Faculty and staff with a qualifying appointment of at least 50% FTE and earning a base salary of $100,000 or more have the option to enroll in a Supplemental Individual Disability Insurance (IDI) plan. These individualized plans provide additional coverage over and above the university’s LTD plan. The benefit is available on a voluntary basis, and premiums will be paid through post-tax payroll deductions. Eligible faculty and staff are provided information about this individual coverage during a special open enrollment period each spring.

Note: No premium payments are required for your STD coverage while you are receiving payments under the STD plan. If your STD claim is denied, you are responsible for continuing to pay your STD premiums. Refer to Benefits Continuation while on Approved Leave of Absence for information about benefit eligibility and payment of benefits while you are on an approved paid or unpaid medical leave.

DURATION OF DISABILITY BENEFITS
STD
Under the STD policy, you may receive STD benefits from the 31st calendar day until the 90th calendar day of your disability. Your disability payments and your claim will end on the earliest of the following:

• when you are able to work in your regular occupation on a part-time basis but you choose not to;
• the end of the maximum period of payment
• the date you are no longer disabled under the terms of the plan, unless you are eligible to receive benefits under Unum’s Rehabilitation and Return to Work Assistance Program;
• the date you fail to cooperate or participate in Unum’s Rehabilitation and Return to Work Assistance program;
• the date you fail to submit proof of continuing disability;
• the date your disability earnings exceed the amount allowable under the plan or;
• the date of your death

If your disability continues longer than 90 calendar days, your disability benefits may be continued under the LTD policy.

LTD
Under the LTD policy, your disability benefits may be continued until the earliest of:

• during the first 24 months of payments, when you are able to work in your regular occupation on a part-time basis, but you choose not to;
• after 24 months of payments, when you are able to work in any gainful occupation on a part-time basis, but you choose not to;
• if you are working and your monthly disability earnings exceed 80% of your eligible monthly earnings, the date your earnings exceed 80%;
• the end of the maximum period of payment, as described in the chart below;
• the date you are no longer disabled under the terms of the plan, unless you are eligible to receive benefits under Unum’s Rehabilitation and Return to Work Assistance program;
• the date you fail to cooperate or participate in Unum’s Rehabilitation and Return to Work Assistance program;
• the date you fail to submit proof of continuing disability;
• after 12 months of payments, if you are considered to reside outside the United States or Canada. You will be considered to reside outside these countries when you have been outside the United States or Canada for a total period of six months or more during any 12 consecutive months of benefits; or
• the date of your death.

Lifetime Limitations for Certain Disabilities
Under the LTD policy, in general, you may only receive benefits for all disabilities due to mental illness, alcoholism or drug abuse and disabilities based primarily on self-reported symptoms for a maximum of 24 months during your lifetime.

SPECIAL NOTES REGARDING DURATION OF DISABILITY BENEFITS

- Unum may, at its option, pay disability benefits in advance based on an estimated duration of your disability. If you return to work prior to your estimated duration of disability, you must repay any overpayments.
- After your disability payments begin, you may be asked to periodically provide evidence of your continued disability and treatment.
- If you are disabled and entitled to disability benefits when the disability policy ends, you will continue to receive disability benefits as long as you remain disabled from the same disability. Disability benefits will not be paid for longer than they would have been paid had the policy remained in effect.

CALCULATING YOUR BENEFIT PAYMENT

- Your benefit will be calculated as of the day Unum determines you became disabled. The pay used to figure your benefit will be your gross weekly base salary for STD, or gross monthly base salary for LTD, before you became disabled. Any pay increases that become effective after your disability begins will not be considered in determining your benefit.
- After the elimination period, if you are disabled for less than one week and are on an approved STD claim, Unum will send you one-seventh of your payment for each day of disability. If you are disabled for less than one month and on an approved LTD claim, Unum will send you one-thirtieth of your payment for each day of disability. You may contact Integrated Absence Management and Vocational Services for additional information on calculation of your benefit payment.

INCOME THAT OFFSETS DISABILITY PAYMENTS

Unum will subtract certain deductible sources of income from your disability benefit. Deductible sources of income are specified in the Policies and include, but are not limited to:

- Sick leave
- Paid parental leave
- Social Security and OPERS/STRS/SERS retirement
- Workers’ compensation or other occupation programs

RECEIVING DISABILITY BENEFITS

INCOME THAT OFFSETS DISABILITY PAYMENTS, CONT’D

Example:
- You have been employed at the university for 25 years. Your eligible monthly base wage when you became disabled under the LTD Policy was $2,500. First, Unum calculates your monthly disability benefit:

  Monthly base wage: $2,500
  Benefit percentage: \times 60\%
  Monthly disability benefit: $1,500

- Then the policy looks at the other benefits that you are eligible to receive that are based on your wage record: OPERS/STRS/Social Security Disability (i.e., other income): $1,600
- Your other income is more than your monthly disability benefit from Unum. Therefore, you will not receive a monthly disability benefit under the LTD Policy.

SURVIVOR INCOME BENEFIT (LTD)
This benefit helps your dependents in the event of your death or terminal illness. If eligible, the benefit is paid in a lump sum and equals your gross monthly LTD disability payment multiplied by three. Other survivor benefits may be available through the university and/or your retirement system. For information about other university benefits, you may contact the Office of Human Resources (614) 292-1050, (614) 292-7813 (Fax), hr@osu.edu.
RETURN TO WORK

Notify the Office of Human Resources, Integrated Absence Management and Vocational Services and Unum if you are released to return to work with restrictions (e.g., light duty, reduced hours, modified schedule, etc.). Failure to do so may result in overpayment of disability benefits. You may not return to work until you present a return to work release form from your physician to your department, Integrated Absence Management and Vocational Services and Unum.

RETURN-TO-WORK INCENTIVE

You may be able to return to work, even while you are receiving disability benefits. For up to 12 months, you may continue to receive your entire disability benefit payment as long as the total of those benefits plus your part-time earnings is less than or equal to your full-time earnings before you became disabled. Unum will need notification of your return-to-work hours and compensation.

Example:
With an approved claim, you return to work but are not capable of working your normal 40-hour per week schedule. The physician has restricted you to working 20 hours (part-time) per week for one month. In general, you would be entitled to a partial disability benefit while also receiving your university pay for the part-time hours worked.

Example Calculation:

• Disability benefits for one month at the reduced work capacity would be calculated as follows:
  Pre-disability monthly base wage: $1,200
  Ohio State GRTW monthly earnings: $600 Gradual-Return-to-Work = GRTW
  (20 hours per week for 4 weeks)
  Unum monthly disability benefit: $720
  (60% of pre-disability monthly base wage)
  Unum Adjustment: - $120
  Total income during GRTW: $1,200

• This is just an example of how an Ohio State GRTW incentive is calculated. Your monthly earnings from the university and Unum do not always equal your pre-disability monthly base wage and will not always exceed your pre-disability monthly base wage.

REHABILITATION AND RETURN TO WORK ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

• Unum has a vocational Rehabilitation and Return to Work Assistance Program available to assist you in returning to work. Unum will determine whether or not you are eligible for this program. In order to be eligible for rehabilitation services and benefits, you must be medically able to engage in a return to work program.
• Return to work under this program can be to your own occupation at the university, or any occupation at the university or another employer. With Unum’s approval, a rehabilitation program may include but is not limited to:

• While participating in a Rehabilitation and Return to Work Program, Unum will pay an additional disability benefit of 10% of your gross disability payment to a maximum benefit of $250 per week for STD claims or $1,000 per month for LTD claims.
• Unum will make weekly payments to you for three weeks under the STD policy and three months under the LTD policy following the date your disability ends if Unum determines you are no longer disabled while:
  - You are participating in the Rehabilitation and Return to Work Assistance Program; and
  - You are not able to find employment.
• This benefit payment may be paid in a lump sum.

DEPENDENT CARE EXPENSE BENEFITS FOR LONG-TERM DISABILITY

• Under the LTD policy, while you are participating in Unum’s Rehabilitation and Return to Work Assistance Program, Unum will pay a Dependent Care Expense Benefit when you are disabled and you:
  - Are incurring expenses to provide care for a child under the age of 15; and/or
  - Start incurring expenses to provide care for a child age 15 or older or a family member who needs personal care assistance.
• The payment of the Dependent Care Expense Benefit will begin immediately after you start Unum’s Rehabilitation and Return to Work Assistance Program.
• Unum’s payment of the Dependent Care Expense Benefit will:
  - Be $350 per month, per dependent; and
  - Not exceed $1,000 per month for all dependent care expenses combined.

1 Exceeds your pre-disability monthly base wage, so your Unum monthly disability benefit will be reduced to $600.
